

Background

Ryne Pineda is a singer, songwriter, music producer, and DJ. Born in Chicago, IL, music has inspired his life at a very young age. His parents encouraged that passion by buying instruments for him when they could, because they struggled financially at times, he taught himself how to play those instruments. Growing up in a household full of music, Ryne's music creativity is influenced by various artists from the 60's, 70's, 80's, 90's and into the new millennium! These influences are creatively reflected in his DJ sets and produced work.

He moved to Las Vegas in 2007 and recently has devoted his entire energy to music in all forms, spinning at various venues, creating new music, producing for local artists, and working on solo projects. His perseverance, passion, and persistence are shown through his music and he is sure to be a continuing crowd pleaser! "Music is my life". - RP.
